Early planning for 2013

- June 12 General Meeting in Bath

HELP US GROW

There will be others who write about the great time they had in Llandudno at the General Meeting, although neither words nor photos can really do the experience justice! You need to be there if at all possible, so put 12 June 2013 in your diary now and anticipate a trip to Bath.

It is always good to spend time together, to meet friends, "You're from Manchester – I used to live there until I moved to Wales. I recognised you," said one lady in the Venue Cymru, and to hear other people's stories.

Stories were the focus of this year's meeting and are also the focus of the Review which we hope you will receive soon, if not already! Please ask your branch leader to send for sufficient copies, then read it and think about passing it on. More importantly, after thought and prayer, pass on the 'Help us grow' invitation to someone not yet a member. Bear in mind that they may not wish to join your own branch. Diocesan membership may be more appropriate, for example.

"let the seed grow, nurturing it with your prayers"

If several branches around are finding difficulty in attracting younger members, why not look to create a deanery group? Use your imagination when planning a venue and introduction to Mothers' Union, then let the seed grow, nurturing it with your prayers.

What is abundantly clear here in Manchester is that when people find out what Mothers' Union really is and does they are overwhelmed, and many wish to join.

by The Diocesan President

As members we are not always very good at looking for the titbits which will most interest others. All of us need to be well informed so that we can pluck the most apt – you may enjoy knitting for Special Care Baby Units but a busy young mum may be more interested in hearing about Parenting groups.

You may enjoy serving soup to students but a professional man may find more interesting the work at the prison Visitors Centre. When chatting to a clergy person, is theirs a church with lots of baptisms (Hand in Hand) or weddings (Loving for Life)?

As we look forward to the next triennium, I hope that we will all accept that it is our responsibility to 'Help us grow' and that it is vital for our future.

The past few weeks have been wonderfully hectic with branch, deanery and archdeaconry festivals as well as our diocesan Festival Praise.

It never ceases to amaze me how different these services are, even though so many use our theme as their focus. There has been added a number of events to mark the Diamond Jubilee, again very different although all with the same aim, of giving thanks for the dedication of our monarch.

I enjoyed reading some of the ways members have celebrated. ('Painting' with food colouring the Union flag onto dozens of buns must be one of the more dedicated efforts! - They were sold to raise funds for Street Angels in Oldham.)

On a personal note, if I have not visited you over the past five years, you still have a few months left! I would love to say, at the end of six years, that I have been welcomed into every branch of this diocese but there are still some I have not met, shared fellowship and prayed with!

Festival Praise

by Chris Haworth

At the Cathedral on June 25th members together with invited guests, the League of Catholic Mothers, the Jewish Ladies, a Deputy Lieutenant, the High Sheriff, Mayors and consorts from around the Diocese, came together to celebrate Mothers' Union in the Diocese of Manchester in the form of 'Festival Praise'.

Which hymn moves you? Which hymn has a special meaning to you? Which hymn reminds you of a happy or sad occasion in your life or brings you nearer God?

The Bishop shared his view through the windows of the West end of the Cathedral, we turned to face the windows keeping our eye on the middle window as the sun shone through. What colours, what joy, what a sight, Moving? – Yes.

And the Indoor Members were there too – if not in person, in a blanket knitted especially for the occasion, one square for each Indoor member – some squares had names on them, some were a bright colour but the warmth of their membership was there spread over an armchair.

We heard why some of the hymns had been chosen:

'I the Lord of Sea and Sky', chosen by Sandra Bradshaw our Manchester Archdeaconry President;

'O Lord my God, when I in awesome wonder' chosen by Lily Critten our Faith and Policy Co-ordinator;

'The Lord's my Shepherd' chosen by Mary Helliwell, Rochdale Archdeaconry President;

'Make me a Channel of your Peace' chosen by Carol Eyles, Salford Archdeaconry President.

They gave moving accounts of parts of their lives in which these hymns helped them to make a decision, supported them, brought them back to God. The Mothers' Union choir sang the anthem, 'The Lord's my Shepherd'. There were readings and prayers, warmth and friendship.

Presidents from 2013

Barbara Taylor, our current Diocesan President, has great pleasure in announcing that Catherine Hilton is to be President from January 2013. Cath is currently a General Trustee.

Two new Archdeaconry presidents were also announced, Christine Faulkner for Bolton and Marion Ball for Rochdale.

Our Congratulations and prayers go to these members as they take on these important roles in the Diocese.

General Meeting

by Marion Ball

Once again the Worldwide General Meeting (GM) gave us an opportunity for three days away, this time in Wales. 31 members from the diocese travelled to Bangor and stayed in accommodation at the university. On Friday we had a day out to Portmeirion and, despite the appalling weather, we all had a good time.

The service in the evening at Bangor Cathedral was very uplifting and being bi-lingual was a new experience for many of us. After the service we returned for our usual get together which was enjoyed by all despite having to cram ourselves into the kitchen area. Saturday we then travelled to Llandudno (joining 18 more members from Manchester) for the GM which as usual was inspiring and informative. We are all looking forward to 2013 and preparing for our visit to Bath.

Didn't we have a lovely time the day we went to Bangor?

by Dorothy Ford

From Manchester, lunch at St Asaph Tweed Mills on to Bangor University to unpack and out to explore Bangor, meeting other Mothers' Union members - that was only day one! Friday took us to Portmeirion. Umbrellas to the fore but, in spite of 'incessant' rain, we could not fail to be impressed with the beauty of the place and the unusual buildings.

The highlight was the wonderful Evensong in Bangor Cathedral, so uplifting, spoken and sung in Welsh and English. After an evening of fun, a singsong, some entertainment and a lovely buffet supper, it was the end of day two. Saturday we made our way to the General Meeting in Llandudno which was both enlightening and inspiring. Many thanks to Marion Ball who organised the trip - it was truly a super trip to Bangor we will not forget.

The message from the general meeting was: 'Inspiring Membership - Help us Grow the seed we sow'. The challenge to us all is to increase our membership and to answer the following:

How is your branch going to encourage new members? Will you organise a 'Find out more about Mothers' Union' event? Will you invite them to tea, arrange a special service, talk to your Toddler Group? Will you invite them to a meeting? Will you invite them personally?

To help with this Mary Sumner House have sent out, to all Branches, copies of two leaflets. The first, 'Help us Grow' incorporates an invitation which can be used to invite potential members to find out more about being a member.

The second leaflet 'The Seed we Sow' gives a wealth of information regarding the projects/campaigns Mothers' Union is involved with.

Watch out for your leaflets there should be one copy of each leaflet per branch member. How is your branch going to use them?

What will you do with your copy of Cymbal? Remember to PASS IT ON to your potential new members. Extra copies are available from the office.

Looking ahead to retreat

by Lily Critten

Plans are well on the way in the organisation of our Retreat at Foxhill in September. Members of the Planning Committee have visited Foxhill and found the secluded situation of the house and the extensive grounds and woodland area to be just right for this, our first Weekend Retreat. The chapel had an indescribably spiritual atmosphere, which was obvious to all those entering. The Deputy Warden, Helen Thornton, is sure to give us a warm welcome.

It could only happen to a determined Faith and Policy Co-ordinator....

Jubilee Monday, June 4th. Whit walks. Be at the Cathedral 9.30 a.m. ready for prompt departure at 10 o'clock. How to get there? No transport until 10 a.m. What to do?

Go anyway. Arrived Stockport 10.45 a.m. No connections visible. 192 bus arrived. The Service in Albert Square will have started. Hurry, hurry up, bus, arrived Piccadilly 11.30 a.m. Service will be over; the procession will be leaving Albert Square. What to do?

Join crowds on Cross St. Wait until Mothers` Union contingent comes in sight. Join them. Bands, music, masses of red, white and blue, children in identical flimsy dresses. Exhilaration. I`d made it !

Walked with the `scholars` on Jubilee Day Took 2 hours over lunch, then off to Sandra Bradshaw`s for a Jubilee tea. Flags and bunting, nostalgia - seeing my old friends from St.Crispin`s. Scrumptious food. A group photograph alongside Queen Elizabeth.

Off again, must not miss evening concert outside Buckingham Palace. Arrived home just as the Queen arrived. Sat glued to it, stayed up until after midnight to watch the part missed. I had a really wonderful day.

Quiet Day

by Barbara Hill

Colossians Chapter 1 v 3

Thursday May 17th was Ascension Day-a very appropriate day for our Quiet Day. Our thoughts and prayers were led by the Dean, the Very Revd. Rogers Govender. He chose as his reflection of the day "hospitality".

Hospitality leads us to think of hospitals, hospice, spaces to heal, spaces to rest, to eat together, to discuss, to enquire. Before Jesus leaves us at Ascension tide he wishes to leave us with our faith confirming our closeness to Him. He came to help all people, He is a healing God, He has space for all of us.

The psalms hold great words for us to read and ponder over, looking to God for help, sharing and discovering the direction we need to go, the strength of His love for us. It is a place where we all read, listen and learn of the brokenness of the world and how He will lead us forward.

We read that all begins and ends with God, we are inseparable, we go together, we share with others. We ended our day by 'going together' to share the Communion. The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with us all.

Angels do exist - in Oldham

Street Angels support people who work in or visit Oldham's night time economy. Revd Jean Hurlston tells us more...

Street Angels are local volunteers who work alongside agencies like the police and council to ensure people are kept safe and enjoy themselves. Angels are on duty Saturday nights 11pm - 3am and on Bank Holiday weekends it's Sunday 10pm- 2am instead.

Oldham Street Angels go walkabout on Yorkshire Street and have a base at number 80. There people, a bit worse for wear from drink, can wait in safety till collected by friends or until they've sobered sufficiently to get a taxi home.

As well as walking along the streets chatting to revellers Angels offer practical assistance such as searching for friends who have lost each other, escorting people to licensed cabs and collecting empty glass bottles left on doorsteps.

They are in radio contact with emergency services. Angels can diffuse situations before things escalate.

They're valued by visitors to clubs and bars and by those who work in the industry. Parents praised the care given by the Street Angels when the project began at Christmas saying that they felt confident in the knowledge that Street Angels were there.

It can be the other way round as team leader Jen Gibbons recalls, "It's not just keeping young people safe", she said, "at Christmas we looked after a lady who'd had one too many until her daughter came to pick her up." Many of the volunteers are from local churches, 7 are Mothers' Union members - motivated by their faith to offer this kind of community support; non church members also help as they see it as valuable work experience. Reverend Jean Hurlston, founder of the Oldham Street Angels, says "It's certainly not all glamorous, we've cleaned up people with gashes, nosebleeds and vomit from their shoes.

People have been very generous giving donations to buy equipment, from high visibility jackets to wet wipes, tissues and hand gel. Sometimes all people want is a quiet space to talk and we are good listeners."

Jean is assistant priest at Oldham Parish Church and still turns up for church on Sunday mornings...so why do they do it? Jean adds "Our motto is 'there because we care' and that is what our belief teaches. Street Angels express genuine love for others and the whole team does whatever it can to serve the people of Oldham."

Oldham Street Angels is a project managed by Oldham Town Centre Chaplaincy. Revd Jean can be contacted by using the following email: jeanhurlston@btinternet.com

What celebrations across

Lynn Cotton, Branch Leader at Oldham Parish Church, writes... we welcomed the Mothers' Union members from St Mary's, High Crompton on Wednesday 6 June. The visitors were treated to a tour of the crypt and then they joined in our crazy craft evening. We all made a 'loony tunes' television set under the guidance of Susan Fozard. Much hilarity rang throughout the evening. Everyone was treated to a buffet supper provided by our verger John Dunkerley. A return visit to St Mary's has been promised in the near future. What on earth will they have in store for us?

Dorothy Ford, from St Anne's, Royton, writes...Red, white and blue, Land of Hope and Glory, Music, Sherry and Wine, a toast to 'The Queen', Jubilee flags and a table full of tempting food gave the members a Jubilee Party which was especially memorable and enjoyable.

Doreen Hough, from St Anne with St James, Walmsley Deanery, writes... with a superb display showing the history of Mothers' Union, the knitting done for the hospitals plus Angel Pockets, and Families First, the celebration was ready. Although the day was extremely wet, the Queen was in attendance (just a cardboard cut-out!) and all had a good time in celebration.

Marion Ball writes about St Martin's Mothers' Union, Heywood and Middleton Deanery. Members of St Martin's branch travelled to Heysham to share in Jubilee Celebrations with St Peter's and St James' Mothers' Union members. They developed a link over the past couple of years when one of their members moved to live in Morecambe. Next year St Martin's will be hosts when they come to visit. (pictured right)

Bernice Reid, from Hulme Deanery, writes..We had a lovely celebration at St. James' Church Moss-Side. A superb Jubilee party enjoyed by everyone.

oss the Diocese

Jean Kelshaw, from Eccles Parish Church, writes...we celebrated the Queen's Diamond Jubilee with a Summer Fair. It was a great occasion, with a very friendly atmosphere and a huge success. Just look at those cakes! (pictured above)

Romey Simpson, Branch Leader of Emmanuel Holcombe, writes...we celebrated the Jubilee with a cake, decorated with the Union flag and topped off with a crown (pictured above).

Two ladies had had a Blue Peter afternoon making the crown. After the National Anthem and a short service we had a trip down memory lane with each member recounting their reminiscences.

One very poignant one from Mrs Hilda Gaskell who told us it was her birthday on the day the King died. We toasted Her Majesty, our Patron, with sparkling wine and reflected on what a lovely day had been had by all.

Janice Coop, Branch Leader at St James, Thornham, Oldham West Deanery, writes...we had a great time at our Jubilee Sharing Supper. We all dressed in red, white & blue, there was a fantastic array of patriotic desserts and a special Union Jack cake. We toasted Her Majesty, sang The National Anthem, and the party went with a swing as we were accompanied by live piano music, courtesy of one of our parishioners. A good time was had by all!

Walmsley Celebration

by Joyce Vickers

“Come on and celebrate! His gift of love we will celebrate -The Son of God who loved us, And gave us life”

Members of Walmsley Deanery and guests enjoyed a wonderful Festival hosted by the members of Christ’s Church Harwood. It was a joyous occasion, fantastic singing, music, inspirational readings, prayers and sermon.

There are many occasions for celebration as we journey through life and as we celebrate God’s gift of love; these blessings were displayed at our Festival.

The birth of a child – new life, new hope, new joy. It is God’s purpose that children should know love within the stability of their home and grow in faith.

Baptism marks the beginning of a journey with God, which continues for the rest of our lives. It is the first step in response to God’s love and followed later with Confirmation.

Marriage is a gift of God in creation, a way of life made holy by God, which all should uphold and honour, it enriches society and strengthens community.

Birthdays and anniversaries are occasions when we celebrate the gift of life, gifts of love and give thanks to God for his faithfulness.

This year we celebrate and give thanksgiving for the Queen’s accession to the throne 60 years ago. God of time and eternity grant our Queen your gifts of love and joy and peace.

During the service, gift bags relevant to the readings were brought forward and placed on the altar. Revd Canon Wendy Oliver revealed in her sermon the bags only contained packaging – no gifts. As members of Mothers’ Union ‘We are to use our different gifts in accordance with the grace God has given us (Romans 12:6) as we seek to share God’s love with others. Your gift? Discover and Celebrate!

Let’s welcome

Remembering Lilian Atkins

By Valerie Smith

When Mrs Lilian Atkins, who had been a branch member of St. Paul Peel's Mothers' Union branch many years ago, died, she was living in Wotton-under-Edge, Gloucestershire. Her daughter, Mrs Irene Birnie, requested that any monies donated in Little Hulton in her mother's memory should be used to buy an item for the church. After much deliberation it was decided to purchase a crystal vase and stand to use in the Mothers' Union corner in church to be filled each week with flowers – Lilian loved flowers. Both stand and vase were engraved:

Lilian Atkins 1917-2010 Devoted Mothers' Union Member 1955-2010

Her daughter Irene travelled with her husband from Gloucestershire on Mothering Sunday when the vase was dedicated and our new Branch Leader, Michelle Coghlin, commissioned.

Win Hill's many hats

They have worn so many 'hats' and are still active and enjoying being members of Mothers' Union. Jean Taylor, from St Mary's Davyhulme, writes...

Birthday Congratulations to Win Hill who celebrated her 90th birthday on July 9th. Win has been a member of Mothers' Union for 33 years. She was enrolled at Christ Church, Davyhulme in February 1979 and now attends St Mary the Virgin Davyhulme and is a member of its branch.

Win has been a Branch Leader at Christ Church, Stretford Deanery Leader, first Archdeaconry President for Manchester Archdeaconry, Faith & Policy Co-ordinator for the Diocese, and was responsible for the setting up of Thursday Prayer at Manchester Cathedral which she has been very involved with over the past 5 years.

She is interested in the whole work of Mothers' Union. Win and her husband, Rowland, celebrated their 60th Wedding Anniversary in 2008. Win is a regular member of St Mary's Church, taking a very active part in church services and is a Eucharistic Assistant and regularly takes communion to the housebound and local care homes in the parish.

Margaret Heeney

Many congratulations to Margaret Heeney, a member of St James, Moss Side Branch in the Hulme Deanery who celebrated her 81st birthday in May. Margaret writes....

I joined Mothers' Union in June 1960, was commissioned as a Speaker and received a Speaker's Badge. Travelled the length and breadth of the Diocese speaking at branch meetings and deanery festivals. Was invited by Flo Billington to be the Prayer Group Correspondent, which was then a President's appointment.

This post I held for 6 years. In 1990 I was the Members' representative on Central Council attending three meetings a year for three years in London, with Marlene Armitage and Jean Bailey and the Diocesan Secretary, Joan Cooper. All thoroughly enjoyable. I spoke at branch meetings about Central Council.

Then I became the Marketing Co-ordinator. Marlene nominated me to serve on the Central Committee. Again, thoroughly enjoyable meetings in London.

I have also been Deanery Leader for Hulme and Archdeaconry President for Manchester. I have never been a Branch Leader. I have had a great time in my work for Mothers' Union and would encourage every member to say Mary Sumner's Prayer every day:

All this day, O Lord,

*let me touch as many lives as possible for thee;
and every life I touch, do thou by thy spirit quicken,*

whether through the word I speak,

the prayer I breathe,

or the life I live.

Amen.
